Use your senses. This is the most important rule of tasting.

Sight Hold the glass up to the light. Look at the color. If it’s a white wine, is it more on the lighter side or deep golden yellow? The deeper golden hues indicate oak aging. In red wine, is it light and thin or deep and opaque? Brick red or inky purple? A purple hue usually indicates an ability to lay down and age.

Aroma Swirl the wine in a glass to “release the bouquet.” Try not to spill any! Stick your nose into the glass, close your eyes, and take a deep inhale. Crushed berries? Vanilla? Baked cherries? Wet leaves in the Fall? Let your mind go and see what you think of.

Taste Drink a bit and hold it in your mouth...don’t swallow right away! Your mouth can sense salt, sweet, sour, and bitter, so concentrate on those. A high acid will feel like it’s dancing in your mouth. Rich and smooth will be balanced and juicy.

Touch Before swallowing, use a sense of touch to decide how it feels in your mouth! Does it feel light and refreshing or heavy and full? Is it a summertime refresher or a winter warmer? When we refer to the “body” - it is this sense of touch we are talking about.

Listen What are others around you saying? Go ahead and disagree! Everybody’s tastes are different...stand confident in your preferences and you’ll enjoy all the more.

RYAN COMPANIES US, INC.

Founded more than 70 years ago as a small northern Minnesota lumber company, Ryan Companies US, Inc. is now a leading national commercial real estate firm providing integrated design-build, development and real estate management services to customers in more than 150 cities around the country.

Central to Ryan's business are the core values of integrity, honesty and service. Whether developing, building or managing a customer's space, Ryan is dedicated to "doing what's right." Ryan serves Lake Street area customers in the office, industrial, retail, health care and hospitality markets. Ryan's on a mission to deliver service, efficiency and value.

Building lasting relationships is more than just a slogan at Ryan Companies. A relationship is a connection; an investment in customers, tenants, employees, brokers, subcontractors and our community's success. What does that mean to you? It means your challenges are Ryan's challenges; It means your satisfaction is at the core of every decision made. Ryan is driven by your success; it inspires every project development; it is the foundation of Ryan's delivery process; it means Ryan is in it, with both feet.

ENERGIZED BY CHALLENGING PROJECTS

Ryan takes on challenges that other companies cannot. Their can-do attitude – whether completing a large distribution facility on a tight schedule or an urban office/retail project demanding government approvals – has earned Ryan a reputation as a reliable partner, no matter how difficult the job.

For more information about the Midtown Exchange or other area Ryan projects, call Dave Burrill at 612.492.4226.

Engage-Serve-Represent

Lake Street Council is an asset to every Lake Street area business.

In partnership with the eight major nodes, Lake Street Council has been the unifying force for business & property owners within the vibrant and diverse Lake Street commercial corridor.

Through Lake Street Council, members receive vital information, access to helpful programs, and maintain 2-way communication with elected officials.

LSC also provides the best networking opportunities!

All gifts for the Lake Street Council Annual Fundraiser have been graciously donated by area businesses. Please support our community businesses for dining, shopping, services and entertainment. They are the best!

We ask that you be generous when bidding on the auction items. This is your opportunity to support Lake Street Council and its many members.

Check out one of this year's star auction items, an authentic Vikings helmet signed by star rookie wide receiver Percy Harvin, at #159!
